Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 4/22/2004 have been fully considered but they are not yet considered persuasive.

The crux of applicant's arguments (especially in the Remarks section) regards the document definition file. Yet, at page 6, applicant states that such a ddf is "a template for extracting information from a server or group of servers." This is precisely the situation in which XML (fully noted in the prior art) is usually used. In fact, XML is so often used in such a situation that XML is often associated with B-to-B applications (which, of course, involves standards and template for such extraction situations).

Furthermore, such as at page 7 of the Remarks, applicant asserts that the note of XML (which applicant agrees as being well-known in the art) does not teach enterprise computing. Yet (to reiterate), XML is so often used in such a situation that XML is often associated with B-to-B applications (which, of course, often involves enterprise computing).

Thus, for the foregoing reasons, Applicant's arguments are not yet considered persuasive.

Claims Presented

Claims 16-38 are presented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Rejections of claims 16-38 have been stated in the previous Office Action and therefore the rejections can be the previous Office Action.

Conclusion

The art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The art disclosed general background. They were cited in the previous Office Action.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
